The patrons of the Capital City House were treated to a variety show last night by Duncan Clark's Company. It was what the crowd went to see, and they evidently went away satisfied. Its as good a show of the class that has struck town this season.—Daily Leader, Des Moines, Iowa.

The ninth annual May party was held at the north side opera house last evening and was largely attended. Not as many from abroad attended as in former years, but this no doubt was owing to the busy times. Music was furnished by the Harmony orchestra, consisting of ten pieces, and is said to have been very fine. During the intermission the Ladies Guild furnished light refreshments.

Chas. Collins, who is under bond for his appearance at district court on the charge of gambling, is now located in the county jail at Kearney on the charge of attempted murder. He made an assault on Charles Tubs, of that city Wednesday evening of last week, stabbing him several times with a knife, twice in the face. Four of the wounds in his back were from four to seven inches long. Collins made his escape on Dr. McCrosson's race horse, of which he had charge, but was captured at Grand Island and taken back to Kearney. Tubs, though seriously, is not thought to be fatally wounded.

WANTED:—A few good carpenters; a few good common laborers; and also work for masons and painters. Work in the vicinity of Broken Bow and Sargent. Those wishing work of this kind will do well to see me soon while the places are vacant. Call on or address me at Broken Bow or Sargent, Nebr. W. F. HOPKINS.

Bert Gregory, son of W. C. Gregory, of this city, has accepted a position with the Flato Cattle Co., one of the largest cattle companies of the state. The company was fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Gregory, as his experience with his father for years in handling cattle makes him a very valuable man in that line of business. In his present position he will also prove valuable to farmers who need accommodations in a financial way, as he is in a position to secure money for those who desire to engage in the cattle business beyond the limit of their ready cash. His father, W. C. Gregory, of this city, will cooperate with him in that line.

Penn & Dorris are now prepared to serve the public promptly and in the most satisfactory manner. They have recently added a new gasoline engine of the latest pattern to their finely equipped shop. Charley Penn, the senior member of the firm, is one of the best mechanics in central Nebraska. He is not only a skilled machinist, but is a genius of remarkable ingenuity. There is no machinery that he is not able to comprehend. Besides being able to do all kinds of the ordinary work that comes under the line of blacksmithing, he is a machinist and boiler and engine maker. Parties desiring their machines repaired or boilers patched can save the expense of sending their machinery off or of hiring an expert mechanic to come from a distance to do their work, by leaving their order with Penn & Dorris of this city, who guarantee full satisfaction on all their jobs.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the citizens of Broken Bow: The Company M. Relief Committee most earnestly thank the people for the liberal patronage and support given us at our entertainment on last Friday evening. We especially thank the members of the orchestra for the splendid music; also each and every one that assisted with the program, and helped to make the entertainment a success. We wish to assure the people that the amount realized will be sacredly held as a fund for the reception of the dear boys when they return.

Ever grateful,

James Stockham,
N. E. Robertson,
Mrs. C. U. Richardson,
Glen Johnson,
E. R. Purcell,
Mrs. H. Wirt,

THE NEW CITY COUNCIL.

Monday night the old city council convened for the last time to close up the business for the past year with a view to turning the administration of affairs to its successor. After transacting the business the oath of office was administered to Mayor-elect Royce, Clerk R. D. Pickett and councilmen J. M. Kimberling, A. R. Humphrey and E. R. Purcell. The retiring mayor, Dr. J. H. Graham, thanked the council for the harmony that had prevailed during his term of office and for the economical and progressive administration, and in maintaining the good name of the city by the enforcement of the laws and ordinances of the city. He nominated P. M. Towsley, the present incumbent, for city marshal and street commissioner, and attorney James Ledwich for city attorney. Both nominations were promptly and unanimously endorsed by the council. The appointment of a night watch and weigh master was deferred and the present incumbents were retained until the mayor should call for their resignation. The following standing committees were appointed: On finance, Kimberling and Kirkpatrick; on streets and bridges, Humphrey, Wood and Purcell; on water works, Wood and McComas. The question of street sprinkling was discussed. On motion the committee on streets and bridges

A NEW HELENA BOY KILLED.

Will Cozad Meets Death by a Runaway Team on Moses Smith's Farm.

William Cozad, the oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cozad, of New Helena, was killed last week by a team running away with him. He was working for Mose Smith at the time and it was Smith's team that he was driving. It was about 9 o'clock Wednesday morning that he was hurt and died at 4 o'clock the same day. He was wounded in a most frightful manner. From the injuries inflicted on his body the wagon and team must have both passed over him. A wrench which he had in his pocket penetrated his bowels, and his ribs were broken, one of which was thrust through his lungs. One hip and leg was also broken. Fortunately he was not wounded about the head and he remained conscious to his death. He seemed to realize that his time had come and expressed a willingness to go, stating that he "might as well die now as any time", and in the last moments he reached out his hand to his mother who was standing by his bed side, and bade her good by with a grip of the hand while a gush of blood from his mouth prevented him from speaking the words. As blood poison set in from the first there was no hope for him. At the time of the fatal accident Mr. Smith was away from home. It is said he cautioned the young man not to take the team out while he was away, as it was not safe. The funeral of the deceased was held on Thursday at the residence of Mr. Smith and the remains laid to rest in the New Helena cemetery. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cozad, are among the first settlers of the county, and are highly respected by all who know them. Their son, whose tragic death is above recorded, was just merging into manhood and would have been twenty one years old Monday, May first. The Republican extends to them in their sad bereavement, our most sincere sympathy.
